

St Andrews Jr School

St Andrews the best school in Dublin all the little kid will enjoy it because the teachers are very friendly and there is a amazing place to play for lunch. Older children will love it because there is great sport facilities and if you are new you'll fit in very easily/same with the little kids. There are two amazing hockey pitches for those who love hockey and those who want to start and also they have a playground that's good fun and there's a good library for those who love to read. The teachers teach you lots of subjects and its fun. One day as a treat Ms MCCormack rented a ice cream van and everyone got ice cream.:]
